First Presbyterian Church welcomes all who worship here. We honor and celebrate the human diversity and unity that God gives us in Christ. We welcome individuals of every age, race, nationality, gender, ability, sexual orientation, and economic circumstance to participate fully in the life of the church. So that we may better know each other, please sign the Ritual of Friendship pad, pass it along the center pew across to the shorter side pew, and then return it to the starting point, noting the names of those sitting near you. On January 19, we welcomed 22 visitors to worship.

We welcome to the pulpit today Rev. Kathryn Lester-Bacon, Director of Religious Life at Duke Chapel where she supports the work of area faith communities' staff and promotes collaboration and dialogue among diverse faith groups. She is a Duke alumna and graduate of Princeton Seminary. She has served at Second Presbyterian in Richmond VA and at Duke Hospital and Trinity Avenue Presbyterian in Durham. She is married to Michael Bacon and they have two children, Josie and Ben.

The flowers in the sanctuary today are given to the glory of God by the Tyren Family in memory of Ted and Jerry Tyren, devout Christians and devoted members of First Presbyterian Church.

Correction: The flowers on Sunday, January 19 were given in loving memory of BJ Seitzer by her family.

Nursery care for infants to 6 years of age is provided during worship on the second floor of the Education Building. Following “A Time with Children,” children can remain in worship with their parents/guardians or return to the nursery. Childcare for infants – 2 years continues in the nursery. There is a changing table in the narthex, located to the left as you exit the rear of the sanctuary.

Worship bags and activity bulletins are available in the foyer for children and youth. Books are on the pews in the narthex for young children to read and enjoy should they need a break from the service.

Portions of today’s worship texts were reprinted from Feasting on the Word, Year A, Vol. I, and Book of Common Worship (1993 and 2018 editions).

Welcome new members!

The following persons were received into membership earlier today by the Session:

Michael Bacon started attending First Presbyterian in 2004, and joined two years later. He met his spouse, Rev. Kathryn Lester-Bacon, in the First Presbyterian choir, and the two married at the church in 2012. In 2013 they moved to Richmond, VA, and returned to Durham in the past year so that Kathryn could become Director of Religious Life at Duke Chapel. They have two children, Josie (age 3) and Ben (age 1). Michael is completing a Ph.D. in the Constructed Environment at the University of Virginia and also works as a software developer.

Tony and Teddie Brown have lived in Durham for the past 27 years coming from Connecticut. Tony has been a Professor of the Practice at the Duke’s Sanford School of Public Policy since 1993. Durham volunteer engagements include Habitat and TROSA. Tony’s “loves” include Teddie, his granddaughters, his current and former students, cooking, and Durham. Teddie was a Duke employee in staff positions at the Sanford School of Policy but has been retired for the past ten years. She has been a board member and active volunteer for Durham Habitat for Humanity, One World Market, Meals on Wheels and most recently taught English as a Second Language at the Durham Literacy Center. She plays tennis and enjoys the grandchildren who live in Chapel Hill.

Uzoaru (Margaret) Eme was born in Nigeria and baptized into the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria. She came to Durham in 2008 and began pursuing a career in hair braiding. She has family in the U.S. but the majority of her family still lives in Nigeria.

Stephen Githua, son of Joseph Ngumi, came to Durham from Kenya about a year ago to care for his dad. He has decided to remain in Durham. Stephen is trained in public relations. His hobbies include hiking, cycling, and listening to and composing music.

Stan and Vickie Luboff retired recently and decided to make another major change and plant themselves in a new environment for their retirement years. Stan enjoyed a long career in the corporate financial sector, for many years with Bank of America, then the Illinois Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity and finally the Illinois Finance Authority. Vickie retired from the Illinois Department of Employment Security, otherwise known as the unemployment office. In July 2019, they moved to Durham from the Chicago area, primarily to be closer to family (son, Alexander and his wife Avery; daughter Heather) and not to escape Midwestern winters!

Joseph Mbogo was born in Kenya and baptized into the Anglican Church in Kenya. Joseph came to Durham in 2016 and has worked in the retail industry.

Fred and Jo Ann Moore relocated to Durham from Caswell County, NC in June 2019. Fred was born and grew up in South Korea, the son and grandson of Presbyterian missionaries. He worked for many years as a family physician and then served as the Health Director/Medical Director at the Caswell County Health Department until his retirement in 2016. Jo Ann, the daughter of a Red Cross executive, was born in England. She received her B.A. and M.S.W. from Michigan State, worked in mental health settings and as an Instructor/Academic Advisor at Danville (VA) Community College until her retirement. They are the parents of two grown daughters, both UNC grads and Durham residents, and have one grandson, whom they enjoy babysitting three days a week.

Seeking Justice on Uneven Ground Exhibit

Tuesday, February 4, 2020

6:00 p.m. Open House and Vigil at FPC (Watts-Hill Hall)

Sharing, Naming, and Healing is an open house event at FPC that will conclude with a vigil of Durham residents sharing their own stories of their housing experiences in Durham, community responses, and prayers of lament and hope for communal healing and justice. Originally commissioned for the 150th anniversary of Durham as a city, the exhibit is a tool for reflection, learning, and dialogue. In recognition of the image of God in us all, the dignity and sacredness of all life, and Christ's command to love one's neighbor as oneself, Seeking Justice on Uneven Ground exhibit brings together the history of racism and housing segregation in Durham with the faith-based affordable housing justice work of Duke Chapel and First Presbyterian Church. First Presbyterian Church has a rich history of housing work in Durham, from collaborating closely with Urban Ministries of Durham, Habitat for Humanity and Housing for New Hope, to being involved in Durham CAN's efforts. Duke University has been involved in land banking, loan trusts, and advocacy for over twenty years. We invite you to delve deeply, prayerfully, and vocally through discussions, panels, vigils, and receptions alongside your neighbors.
