HYMN No. 487 (verses 4-5)	These Treasured Children	Puer Nobis Nascitur
	Come, Holy Spirit, help us be a nurturing community; empower us to realize God's kingdom through our children's eyes. Then, tender God, each child embrace; God give them blessings, grant them grace. Surprise them, God, with wonders still, and gently guide them to your will.
CONFESSION OF SIN		Susan Dunlap
Call to Confession
Prayer of Confession (in unison)
	Merciful God, in baptism you promise forgiveness and new life, making us part of the body of Christ. We confess that we remain preoccupied with ourselves, separated from siblings in Christ. We cling to destructive habits, hold grudges, and show reluctance to welcome one another; we allow the past to hold us hostage. In your loving kindness, have mercy on us, and free us from sin. Remind us of the promises you make in baptism so that we may rise to new life, and live together in grace.

A TIME WITH THE CHILDREN

Natalie Wolf

Introduction and Words of Scripture

Elder: On behalf of the Session, I present Vida Ruth Schultz Wallace to receive the Sacrament of Baptism.

Questions to the Parents:

Pastor: Michael and Heather, do you desire that your child be baptized?
Do you reaffirm your faith in Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior?
Do you renounce evil and affirm your reliance on God's grace?
Relying on God's grace, do you promise to live the Christian faith and to teach that faith to your child?

Parents: We do.

Questions to the gathered Children:

Pastor: Do you promise to be a friend to Vida?
If she gets lost will you help her find the way?
If she falls down, will you help pick her up?
Will you share with her the stories of Jesus?

Children: Yes.

Question to the Congregation:

Elder: Do you, as members of the Church of Jesus Christ,
promise to guide and nurture Vida by word and deed,
with love and prayer,
encouraging her to know and follow Christ
and to be a faithful member of Christ's church?

Congregation: We do.

Profession of Faith (in unison)

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic Church;
the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Thanksgiving over the Water

Leader: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Leader: Let us pray. We give you thanks, Eternal God, for you nourish and sustain all living things by the gift of water. In the beginning of time, your Spirit moved over the watery chaos, calling forth order and life. We thank you, O God, for the water of baptism: in it we are buried with Christ in his death; from it we are raised to share in his resurrection; through it we are reborn by the power of the Holy Spirit. Send your Spirit to move over this water that it may be a fountain of rebirth. Pour out your Holy Spirit upon Vida that she may have power to do your will, and continue forever in the risen life of Christ. To you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, be all praise, honor, and glory, now and forever.

All: Amen.

NEEDED: Long-Sleeve Shirts for Farmworkers

The Association of Mexicans in North Carolina \(AMEXCAN\) is collecting donations of long-sleeve shirts for farmworkers, and First Presbyterian Church, Durham is a collection site. AMEXCAN is accepting new or used long-sleeve shirts, hats, caps, or gloves. These items help protect farmworkers from heat stress and pesticide exposure. The collection will run through Friday, July 31. Drop-offs (at FPC) will be accepted on Mondays and Fridays from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. You can drop items off in the labeled boxes inside the building, in front of the volunteer office at FPC. If you'd like to donate shirts but can't get to the church, contact Katie Becker (katiebeckerwa@gmail.com) so that she can arrange to pick them up from your porch.

FPC holding Durham CAN Listening Sessions

Our church is a member organization of Durham CAN (Congregations, Associations, and Neighborhoods). Over the years, we have worked on affordable housing, living wage, policing, jobs, education, Spanish language interpreters, health, rapid rehousing, transportation, and other areas of concern in Durham. These issues are the product of organization-wide listening sessions where as many as 3000 people around our city give input.

It is time for a new series of listening sessions and our church will participate as we have in the past through house meetings or in Sunday morning classes. This year members of First Presbyterian are offering three Zoom meeting times to meet to talk about our areas of concern in Durham. These sessions will be led by the Durham CAN Core Team from our church.

Use this link: <https://duke.zoom.us/my/sdunlap> to join the listening sessions.

Monday, July 20, 4 p.m.

Thursday, July 23, 7 p.m.

Sunday, July 26, 1 p.m.

Everyone in our church is invited to these sessions. For more information, please contact Susan Dunlap, sjd4@duke.edu.

Durham CAN update: In the last year, CAN has focused on affordable housing, the criminal justice system, and jobs. Much of our work involves meeting with public officials and with people affected by the issues that we work on. The most stirring part of this work are the occasional Delegates Assemblies where as many as 600 people from black, white, and brown communities meet to learn, deliberate, sing, and commit to making Durham a better place for all its residents.

Most recently, our work on reducing the number of evictions from public housing includes regular attendance at eviction hearings and research into other NC cities whose Housing Authority evictions are much lower than Durham's. We have also pressed for several changes at one of Durham Housing Authority properties, including the need for repairs.

When COVID-19 cases began to rise, we met with DA Satana Deberry and secured the release of some older people who were in prison for non-violent crimes who were toward the end of their sentences. We also secured commitments from Sheriff Clarence Birkhead on measures to protect the health safety of people in the Durham County Jail.
