

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF DURHAM

"Downtown by history and by choice"

Bi-Weekly Newsletter

April 3 - 16, 2018

From the Associate Pastor . . .

Dear friends,

Durham has changed drastically in the last 10 years, no doubt: a skyscraper, trendy restaurants, DPAC, a parking crunch, and so many apartments. And yet, when we were walking the neighborhood streets as part of our Holy Week observance on Good Friday, the street scene seemed remarkably unchanged to me: cigarette butts and dandelions lining the cracked sidewalks, buses stopping to pick up and discharge riders and their bicycles, people hanging around outside Urban Ministries, cars with speakers blaring - oblivious to the solemn assembly, Amtrak passing at the appointed hour, and the faithful – walking the winding Via Dolorosa through Durham, feeling the heft of the rough hewn cross, sharing its weight with others, reliving the story of Jesus' suffering, praying and singing along the journey. It always moves me.

But what moved me most this year was our shared journey with others. We gathered on Palm Sunday with our neighbors from Trinity UMC and St. Philip's Episcopal to wave palms and to bless each other's churches. We gathered again on Maundy Thursday at Covenant Presbyterian with their members and the members of Beacon of Light Missionary Baptist to wash feet and remember Jesus' last supper and his command to "love one another". And we gathered on Good Friday with the members of St. Philip's, Covenant, and others to follow the old rugged cross and be reminded of the redeeming power of sacrificial love. We are not alone in this venture: that was my take-away from this year's journey to Easter. We are not alone. We are surrounded by saints in the city who walk the Way of Jesus with us, together, side by side. Sometimes it requires taking a walk outside of your building to realize that you are not a lone disciple. Thanks be to God for our brothers and sisters in faith, the beloved community, who are empowered by the Risen Christ to anchor this city in love and faithfulness, as we grow and change together. Happy Eastertide to all the saints!

Dear Marilyn (and FPC),

Thank you so much for your recent donation of 105 books to Book Harvest! Because of folks like you, we are able to provide books to children in our community who need them, to help build their literacy skills and fuel their imaginations. Since our founding in 2011, we have distributed 779,171 books to children here in the Triangle. Together, we are changing the literacy landscape one child and one home library at a time. Thank you for your partnership in that critical work.

Best regards,

Janet on behalf of Book Harvest

*****

Thank you so much for your Christmas Eve offering of $1,318 donated during the holidays to provide 13,180 meals to those in your community who would otherwise wonder where their next meal was coming from. Thank you to all who made this possible. The Food Bank is so blessed to have supporters fighting hunger with us again this year.

With gratitude, Chandler Rock

PARISH NOTES

- MANY THANKS: to Lenore Champion and the CE Committee for bringing the hot cross buns on a cold wintry morning to celebrate Palm Sunday; to Julie Whiddon and the Fellowship Committee for bringing brunch on Easter Sunday for our members and their many guests; to Jerry Postema and the Worship and the Arts Committee for oversight of three worship services on Easter Sunday; and to Michael Honeycutt and the Pastoral Care Committee for organizing the lovely reception following Dorothy Graham's funeral on Easter Saturday. I concur with Mary Seawell, Dorothy's daughter, that FPC is to be commended for the warm and compassionate ways that it wraps caring arms around those in need. Our congregation has grown in this way, and it is a beautiful thing to see.

- The Friday morning Bible Study returns to finish our study of "Cultivating Christian Character: the Fruits of the Spirit", taking a look at "gentleness" this Friday, and "self-control" on April 13. We will conclude our study on April 20th with a celebration brunch (at which we will practice self-control!). The class is open to everyone, on Fridays from 10:30 – noon at the church. Marilyn Hedgpeth leads the class and would love to have you join us as a Lenten practice.
- The Lenten elective, Holy Listening: Poetry Reading and Writing, which used poetry as a lens for focusing our attention on God, has ended. But members of the class have requested that we continue, perhaps on a monthly basis, bringing poems to share, writing poems to share, looking at Biblical poetry, and considering how metaphor and image form us spiritually. Since most good poetry is essentially about love or death, and since we will be on the other side of Easter/Resurrection Day, the group would like to meet again on Sunday, April 15 from 5 – 6 p.m. in room 205, to discuss and share poems that deal with loss and/or death (their request). Anyone is welcome to bring some interesting poems to share, and to join us around the table. Marilyn Hedgpeth is the facilitator.
- Membership Inquiry Classes will continue on Sunday, April 8 from 9:45 – 10:45 in the Wilson Parlor through April 29. We do not require anyone to take these classes before joining; you are welcome to join at any time, as your schedule allows. Just let the pastors know if you are ready to join, and we'll convene the Session of the church to make that happen. These classes are an opportunity for you to ask your questions, and to make an informed decision with knowledge of the history, ministry and mission of First Presbyterian Church. Know that we would love to include you and get to know you better.

Remaining classes until new members are received:

April 8 – History and Theology (9:45)

led by Mindy Douglas

April 15 – Liturgical Year and Worship (9:45)

led by David Smith

April 22 – Presbyterian Polity and Theology (9:45)

led by Phyllis Supple

April 29 – The Christian Life/Meeting with the Session (9:45)

led by Mindy Douglas

Those who wish may join during the worship service at 11:00 on April 29.

- CROP Hunger Walk: Thank you to everyone who supported the FPC team at the CROP Hunger Walk this past Sunday. Our team had almost 30 walkers and we have received pledges or donations from 50 different church members! Remember to turn in your donation if you sponsored a walker (it's not too late if you would still like to make a pledge to the team!). Please make checks payable to Durham CROP Walk and give to the walker you are sponsoring or to Jody Maxwell. The Durham CROP Walk will raise over $75,000 this year and is the 2nd largest CROP walk in the US. Our congregation plays a big role in making this such a successful event! - Jody Maxwell

Sunday, April 15

Third Sunday of Easter

From the Associate Pastor . . .

Stories of Resurrection: Christ is Risen

In small faith groups, where sharing the scriptures has led to deeper bonds of trust that surprise people;

In families torn by strife that have reached out for professional help and begun to put back together pieces of broken relationships;

In the lonely nightmare of an addict “hitting bottom” and turning to treatment for help;

In weary peace negotiators tempted to give up but willing to try again and again to stop senseless violence and killing in the middle east;

In urban ministries and homeless shelters where a word of compassion is spoken to a sister or brother more in need of kindness than a handout;

In cancer wards and ICU where the value of human life is revered and human dignity restored by the selfless service of health care workers and a compassionate church;

In endless hours of meetings with committees and ministry groups with staff where generous gifts of time and talent are offered for the good of the community;

In the wonderful discovery of self-worth by an insecure adolescent, finding acceptance from peers and caring adults;

In the man or woman in the unemployment line who has lost a job but in the process discovered what really matters in life;
In the bitter pains of grief, gently assuaged by a caring community when loved ones die: Bill Lorimer, Tom Carsey and Dorothy Graham;
In the anger dispelled as forgiveness takes hold and reconciliation happens;
In the struggle to recover from disabling illness or the facing of terminal illness with faith;
In political and social policies that show compassion to the prisoner, the hungry, the helpless and a preference for the poor;
... IN ALL THESE PLACES AND MORE, CHRIST IS RISEN!

SUNDAY SCHOOL / CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Children's and Youth Sunday School are wonderful examples of small group ministry in our church. For the 3-5th graders, Li-Chen Chin and Marilyn Hedgpeth will meet you in the Spirituality Room for some singing, fellowship, and active prayer on April 8. Then on April 15 we'll hear the story of Jesus asking Peter again to follow him (John 21: 15-27). I wonder what he'll ask Peter to do? Do you know? Have you heard the story?

*****

Middle and high school youth classes meet at 9:45 a.m. in their lower level classrooms.

Faith and Community Class: Connections matter for children. The future of NC and our communities depends on our ability to foster the healthy development of the next generation. Extensive research on the biology of stress now shows that healthy development can be derailed by excessive or prolonged activation of stress response systems in the body and brain. Learn this Sunday about how faith communities like First Presbyterian can build resilience and safe, stable, nurturing relationships and environments to strengthen families and keep children safe. April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month and Sharon Hirsch, President & CEO at Prevent Child Abuse NC, will lead our discussion about the ways our community can build connections and supports so that children can thrive. In addition, Christyn Klinck has an interesting opportunity for us to donate used ipods to benefit those struggling with memory loss.

Then on April 15, we welcome back David Reese, President and CEO of East Durham Children's Initiative. Founded in 2009, EDCI has celebrated many milestones since its inception. Come and hear about the progress of this outreach to at-risk children and their families. Faith and Community meets in Watts-Hill Hall from 9:45 – 10:45, and all are welcome!

*****

Lectionary Class: Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

April 8:

Can a community exist if the members do not all agree? Can a community of faith exist if some members do not believe?

April 15:

When you have witnessed something important, you have a duty to testify. But sometimes there are consequences. Are you willing to be a witness? Are you willing to get involved?

*****

Journeys and Scratch/Young Adults Class:

We meet in the corner room of the 2nd floor of the education building.

*****

Spiritual Formation This year-round class for women is led by Susan Dunlap and explores the topic of spiritual formation. Join us at 9:45 in basement classroom B-16.

Two-Part Workshop is from 2:00 - 6:00 p.m.

David LaMotte has presented keynotes and workshops on five continents, appearing along the way, either as a speaker or a musician, with well-known world changers such as Desmond Tutu, Pete Seeker and civil rights hero John Lewis. In this workshop, LaMotte questions prevailing narratives about how the world changes and how it does not. Encourage people to engage with the world around them and address the problems they see, he methodically builds a case for both our capacity and responsibility to make a difference. ## Upcoming Events for Families with Young Children

Many thanks to all of you who turned out for a chilly Easter Egg Hunt and Palm Parade on Palm Sunday. Fortunately, we had hot cross buns to warm us up and an invigorating Crop Walk later that afternoon! These are all wonderful, tactile ways to involve families together in the story of Easter. Our next gathering will be Sunday, April 22 from 5:00 – 6:15 p.m., when parents will step out for a bite to eat, while children learn a little about building robots from Sigfried Fullenkamp. Should be VERY interesting!

This year's theme is "Serve the Lord with Gladness", and each evening will involve dinner, crafts, and a service project that all can participate in together. GBCFF is for children of God young and old. Use this link to sign up:

Ongoing opportunities for service at UMD:

Month after month, dedicated volunteers from our congregation head down the street to Urban Ministries to help prepare and serve meals to our neighbors in need. In addition to serving meals, we also have quite a few members who are helping sort and organize donated clothes to make them available for the many people who walk through the door of Urban Ministries seeking assistance. Other volunteers answer the call to help with special projects, such as stuffing envelopes for large mailings. If you would like to be on the email list to be the first to hear of these opportunities, please contact Margaret Rubiera at margaretmr29@gmail.com. Every little bit that we do makes a significant difference, and we are the richer for the time we give to others.
