Urgent Appeal from Iglesia Emanuel

The COVID-19 pandemic continues to wreak havoc on so many struggling families who have lost their source of income. Our sister church, Iglesia Emanuel, is working overtime to help address critical food shortages not only in the Hispanic community, but well beyond. Their food pantry has gone from serving 60 families a week to 360 families. That computes to well over 1,000 people who will now have food on their tables for the coming week. The heartbreak was that this past Wednesday, there were still at least 100 more cars waiting in line for food after they ran out of all supplies.

This is a huge undertaking week after week for such a small church, and Iglesia Emanuel could not possibly continue their mission to feed the hungry without ongoing support from others. We have been incredibly moved by the generous response from so many caring members of FPC, with financial as well as food donations. Please, let us not grow weary in our support, as the immense needs continue to grow.

There are several ways you can help:

- Make a financial donation on line by going to emanueldurham.org;
- Mail a check, written to Iglesia Presbyteriana Emanuel, 2504 N Roxboro, Durham, NC 27704;
- Donate food, preferably bulk items. Most needed are rice, beans, other staples such as Mac 'n Cheese, cereal, canned goods, etc.;
- Food donations may be taken to Iglesia Emanuel, but call Guillermo Salamea at 919-451-6626 to confirm time of drop-off;
- Food donations may also be taken to Miguel and Margaret Rubiera's house (call 919-452-7275 or 919-358-2346) and we will deliver for you, or we will pick up from your front porch!

Feel free to contact us with any questions, and thank you again for your loving commitment to help others. -Miguel (miguelrubiera1@gmail.com) and Margaret (margaretmr29@gmail.com)
